

Jan 2019

A pray in epiphany Father God, the star that led the Magi to the stable announced to the world that its Saviour was born. Today we live in a world that is still covered by darkness, and still needing to make that journey to the stable door. May our lives reflect your light day by day, as we seek to serve where you have placed us. That we might be the means through which others can encounter Jesus Christ.

Lord in your mercy

Lord will you help us open our minds and hearts to your voice, though the rushing wind, though the Scriptures, though that still small voice, so we can hear your voice though the noise of this world and all that keeps us from listening to you.

We thank you for our community and all that live and work here and how we can live and pray in safety. For our Church for the Baptist Church, the school, the lunch club, the car service, WI, Bowls and all other clubs in the village though they are individual clubs they make up the village and bring people together.

We pray for our coming PCC meeting this week, may we listen to your voice before we speak.

Lord in Your Mercy

We pray for our nation and for those who have authority and influence in our national life: our Queen and all that serve her. We pray for war torn counties and that they will find peace and ways of living together.

Lord in Your Mercy

We thank you for your love and the love that you gave us though you're only son as we continue to celebrate his birth. We pray for those that do not feel your love but only feel rejection and life is a bitter struggle may your love find away in and help them to celebrate his love.

Lord in your Mercy

We pray for those who are old, lonely and who are sick and all that care for them. Let us pray for Dick and Cherry at this time. Show us all what we can do to help those around us and teach us to be good neighbours and true friends.

Lord in Your Mercy

Lord we ask you to be with all those who are grieving today week over the loss of a loved one let us pray for the family of David Green who's Sister In Law died this given them comfort in their loss.

Lord in Your Mercy

Rejoicing in the fellowship of all your saints we commend ourselves and the whole creation to your unfailing love.

Merciful Father.
