Presentation of Christ in the Temple

3rd February 2019Collect

Almighty and ever-living God, clothed in majesty, whose beloved Son was this day presented in the Temple, in substance of our flesh: grant that we may be presented to you with pure and clean hearts, by your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

First Reading: Hebrews 2.14-18

Since the children share flesh and blood, Jesus himself likewise shared the same things, so that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by the fear of death. For it is clear that he did not come to help angels, but the descendants of Abraham. Therefore he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every respect, so that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make a sacrifice of atonement for the sins of the people. Because he himself was tested by what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

Gospel: Luke 2.22-40

When the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, Mary and Joseph brought Jesus up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord. (as it is written in the law of the Lord, 'Every firstborn male shall be designated as holy to the Lord'), and they offered a sacrifice according to what is stated in the law of the Lord, 'a pair of turtle-doves or two young pigeons.' Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; this man was righteous and devout, looking forward to the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit rested on him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Messiah. Guided by the Spirit, Simeon came into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him what was customary under the law, Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying, 'Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace, according to your word; for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel.' And the child's father and mother were amazed at what was being said about him. Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, 'This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed – and a sword will pierce your own soul too.' There was also a prophet, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age, having lived with her husband seven years after her marriage, then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshipped there with fasting and prayer night and day. At that moment she came, and began to praise God and to speak about the child to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem. When they had finished everything required by the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favour of God was upon him.

Post Communion

Lord, you fulfilled the hope of Simeon and Anna, who lived to welcome the Messiah: may we, who have received these gifts beyond words, prepare to meet Christ Jesus when he comes to bring us to eternal life; for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

MARGARET HELMORE'S FUNERAL is here at St Mary's Church, Saffron Walden, on Thursday 7th February at 11am. Margaret was a long-standing member of the church who worshipped weekly at St Mary's, SW until recently. We thank God for her life of service and her witness to Jesus Christ.

David

A SERVICE WITH PRAYERS FOR WHOLENESS & HEALING will take place on Thursday 7th February at 1 o'clock in St Mary's Church, SW. All welcome whether you seek healing for yourself or another.

Our first MEN'S BREAKFAST of the new year will be on Saturday 9th February at The Kings Arms on Market Hill when our Guest Speaker will be Rev'd John Goddard, Minister at the Baptist Church in Saffron Walden, who will be giving his talk intriguingly titled, 'Baptist Postcards'. Coffee and tea will be available from 8:15am with a full English breakfast at 8:30. All are welcome but please note that The Kings Arms can only accommodate 24 of us so numbers are restricted to the first two dozen who sign up on the notice board at the back of St Mary's church, SW, or confirm with Bill Rose (email: wjr2163@gmail.com tel. 516609)

WWW (Women Who Wonder) will meet on Tuesday 13th February at Gill Caswell's home, 59A Claypit Piece SW at 8pm when Sarah Nicolas will be telling us about her work with the Prison Fellowship. All women of working age or thereabouts are very welcome to join this friendly group. More information from Alison Knights at alisoncinque@hotmail.com.

CALLING ALL PHOTOGRAPHERS The next meeting of St. Mary's Camera Group will be on Thursday 28th February at 7:30pm in the Parish Rooms. This is a group for photographers of every level of expertise, who share their pictures through a 'closed' facebook page in order to deepen our appreciation of God and the world around us. Prospective new members are very welcome to join us. Andy Colebrooke

QUIET MORNING David will be leading our next Quiet Morning entitled 'Be Faithful to Christ', on Saturday 2nd March in St Mary's Parish Rooms. Doors open at 9:30 for coffee and start at 10am - 12.30. There will be a sign-up sheet at the back of St Mary's church, SW, next week. Please put this date in your diary. This promises to be a time of quiet reflection and challenge. All welcome. Sue Walker

URGENT REQUEST I need someone soon to co-ordinate our Christian Aid collection in May. This is not an onerous role but helps to raise over £1,000. If you are interested, I'd be pleased to hear from you. David.

ADVANCE NOTICE I am going to be on extended study leave from May to July when I hope to begin work on my second book. My first one, a labour of love for 10 years, is published in March. David
