Ashdon Magazine Article Spring 2019

You may have seen advertisements for the Alpha course, an introduction to the Christian faith. Some of these adverts confront many people's impression of Christianity, that it is 'boring, untrue and irrelevant'. The Alpha course goes a long way to counter this, but if you don't have weeks to spare, I would like to give you my two-pennyworth.

Most of the religions of the world have a founder, someone that they believe spoke the truth about God and the human condition. Christians also believe that their founder is God in human form. This means that Jesus not only shows us what God is like, but he also shows us what human beings are capable of. As we read the four biographies of Jesus (the Gospels) that we find in the Bible, we see in a human being all of God that we can possibly understand and appreciate. More than that, we see what we can be like, if we are willing to accept his help. In the words of a song, Jesus 'laid aside his majesty' when he came to earth, but he was still himself, with all the love, compassion, wisdom, grace, etc. that we know must be at the heart of God.

The miracles that we read about in the Gospels did not happen by Jesus exercising some inherent power, but through the Holy Spirit, the expression of God at work in the world. This is where Christianity becomes exciting, genuine and relevant. The gift of the Holy Spirit is available to everyone who is willing to put their trust in Jesus. He comes to live inside us, through the power of the Holy Spirit, and guides and enables us to live as he did when he was on earth. Even though we fail him again and again, he is always there to pick us up, to dust us down and to help us learn by our mistakes. I first put my trust in him in 1985 and have seen Jesus at work in my life, and in the lives of others, countless times, always with the 'flavour' of the Jesus we read about in the Bible.

At Christmas time, many joined us in the Ashdon churches to focus on the start of Jesus' life on earth. We are approaching the Easter season when we turn our attention to the last week of Jesus' time here. As every year, this will culminate on Easter Sunday (21st April) with a celebration of Jesus rising from the dead, showing us that he has the victory over death for all of us. And on 9th June (Pentecost) we remember the day when Christians first received the gift of the Holy Spirit, to make Jesus-like lives possible here on earth.

First Sunday of Lent

10th March 2019

Collect

Almighty God, whose Son Jesus Christ fasted forty days in the wilderness, and was tempted as we are, yet without sin: give us grace to discipline ourselves in obedience to your Spirit; and, as you know our weakness, so may we know your power to save; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

First Reading: Romans 10.8b-13

What does scripture say? 'The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart' (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, 'No one who believes in him will be put to shame.' For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, 'Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

Gospel: Luke 4.1-13

Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. The devil said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread.' Jesus answered him, 'It is written, "One does not live by bread alone."' Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And the devil said to him, 'To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours.' Jesus answered him, 'It is written, "Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him."' Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, 'If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written, "He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you", and "On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone."' Jesus answered him, 'It is said, "Do not put the Lord your God to the test."' When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

Post Communion

Lord God, you have renewed us with the living bread from heaven; by it you nourish our faith, increase our hope, and strengthen our love: teach us always to hunger for him who is the true and living bread, and enable us to live by every word that proceeds from out of your mouth; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

We welcome David Tomlinson, our Team Rector to preach today.

We will hold All Saints' Church's Annual Parochial Church Meeting (APCM) on 26th March at 7:30pm in the Parish Rooms. We will have a number of vacancies for members of the Parochial Church Council (PCC) please consider prayerfully whether you could server our church and community in this role. Please speak to Robin, Barbara or Richard for more information.

Do join us at 9:30am on 31st March at All Saints' for an Ashdon joint Mothering Sunday service with the members of Ashdon Baptist Church, when Gavin will be speaking – activities for children and gifts for all the ladies.

The PCC has been considering the possibility of setting up a 'Home Team' to lead worship on occasional Sundays. If you are interested in being part of this, please speak to Richard or Robin.

Sheila Plumridge is stepping down from the Ashdon Magazine Committee after many years of faithful service. It would be great if another member of the All Saints' church family could volunteer to help with the vital part of village life. Please speak to Sheila to find out more.

Our Lent Course this year, in partnership with Ashdon Baptist Church will take place on Thursday evenings, starting at 7pm:

- 28th March at the Manse
- 4th April at the Manse
- 11th April at the Vicarage
- 18th April in All Saints' Church (Maundy Thursday)

We will be supporting the charity Water Aid during Lent. Please see the poster in church. They are asking us to save up our loose change.
